

Our Days of Domestic coal this is now over. The well-known of Colorado Coal Company, Main Roadhouse and 20 More houses and Businesses Etc. Indian Territory Selling Coal, Wood, Furniture, Steam Coal in carloads and Tons. Hay in bushels, on truck and Cars at retail. Cheapest grain and Feed Hay in bushels, on truck and Cars at retail. Our lots and Cars at retail. Our lots
LILLEY & BIBB,
Book and Stationery
Phone 147.

Fort Worth Daily Gazette.

MAIL EDITION.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1893.

VOL. XVIII—NO. 6.

LOAKS
FOR Thanksgiving Day!

special styles being re-almost every day and will not make many trips Cloak Department be-you see the one you
It is not our object enough garments of and to dress alike every an in town, therefore numerous telegraphic sent every night for all styles.
you want to be sure you a first-class jacket or come here, and do not detracted thin...g to a dollar, for stylish have never been such low prices. No undersell us.

Y. SMITH & CO.

THE GRAND LODGE

KNIGHTS AND LADIES OF HONOR
at Waco—What Was Done esterday—Officers Elected.
Delegates Present.

To the Gazette.
Tex., Nov. 28.—The eighth bicentenary of the Grand Lodge of the Knights and Ladies of Honor was called to order at 10 o'clock at Old Fellow's hall.
Delegates arrived yesterday, as last night's train, among them the delegates to their work and were of the fact that Texas ranks first in the number of girls in membership for the year.

The meeting was called to order by Peter J. H. Palmer, made address, in part as follows:
and Members of the Grand Knights and Ladies of Honor on a military degree of plenary or a separation of two years, I as the representative of the of Benevolent Orders, met for the review of the past, and ways and means for advancing the interests and happiness of and for the future. While days has called some of our best men to the Supreme Professor Universities the hand has been held upon our lodges, order in this indication during the two years.

Years just passed have been with many untoward circumstances which have militated against our A part of the time political and attention engrossed attention could not reach the public ear, and financial depression, which years, crippled all interests, which have staved the tide and advanced our banner. Two days we had 454 members in this grand jury showing a greater percentage of than any of our sister lodge with pride that I note the order as large as in Texas, to have a safe and healthy future since its inception years, which do not show an improvement. In this connection this is the great desideratum to which direct our attention. To do this realize the fact that in the sharp competition most at every turn from the industry, it is necessary for us to keep in the field thoroughly and to be equal to educate the improvements, aside from the benevolent societies, especially the Knights and Ladies of and while educating the public visit our lodges and raise the thing for you to do is to act quickly and secure space to advertise your business.

PROFESSOR PALMER'S speeches reviewed the workings of the order at some length with many suggestions for its betterment.

The following grand officers were in attendance: J. R. Palmer, grand master; Miss S. N. Florio, grand vice protector; Miss P. C. Cole, grand secretary; Charles S. Morris, grand treasurer; J. D. Montague, grand judge; Mrs.
A. E. West, grand guardian; Louis Schoen, grand sentinel; Mrs. J. M. Stanton, grand treasurer; Mrs. H. A. Sory, grand treasurer; T. S. W. G. T. Burgham, H. M. Mots, members finance committee;
A. C. T. T. T. D. W. K. Keith, members committee on laws.

P. S. Wiles, G. W. Ellington and Mrs.
E. H. Coffey were appointed a committee on credentials.

They reported the following accredited
delegates present:

H. Coffey, Sulphur Springs;
J. C. Miller, Austin; B. F. Allen, Rock-dale; Mrs. Kate Baker, Rachael P.
Holdcamp, Houston; George S. G.
Austin; H. A. Remond, Lagrange; Ellington, Hempstead; D. L. Mays, Worth; Mrs. F. A. Williams, D.
Mrs. Amelia Spain, San Antonio;

Mansfield; Gaveston; J. W. Hardwick; L. W. Heath, Palestine; A. W.
Clegg, Texarkana; T. A. Hill, Wimberly; Frank Greenway, Fort Worth; Wimberly; Edith L. Brooks, Garza-ville; S. O. Colman, Georgetown; C. C.
Burke, Terrell; Godfrey, Hurst; Dallas; E. J. Kilbourn, Corpus Christi; C. C. McCarroll, Van Alstyne; Otto Grunich, San Antonio; J. H. Parker, Mc-Kinney; J. C. Brewer, Laton Springs; Tom A. T. Carl, Waco; J. H. Elbert, San Antonio; H. Paul, Corpus Christi; E. M.
Kingsbury, Rockport; Samson W.
Polmer, S. B. Allison, Denison; S. H. Aspinwall, Paris; E. W. Gatz, Abilene; Perry, San Antonio; Mrs. E. O.
Gates, Memphis.

Then the following special committees for the convention were appointed:

Distribution—George S. Ulster, J. G.
Brewer, A. S. Burkett;

Order—S. H. Ashton, W. A. Callahan,
Mrs. Annie Seaman;

Appeals—E. M. Story, E. G. Gates;

J. R. Elbert;

Legislation—C. C. Burke, D. L. Mays;

G. C. McCarroll.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November 1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the receipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The meeting here adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.
At the afternoon session the following state officers were elected for the next two years: Grand protector, J. H. Palmer; reelected; Dallas; grand vice-protector, Mrs. E. H. Coffey; grand secretary, W. P. Cole; reelected; Dallas; grand treasurer, Mrs. Mrs. E. H. Coffey; Houghton; Mrs. grand guardian, Mrs. Mrs. E. H. Coffey;

Order—S. H. Ashton, W. A. Callahan;

Appeals—E. M. Story, E. G. Gates;

J. R. Elbert;

Legislation—C. C. Burke, D. L. Mays;

G. C. McCarroll.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The meeting here adjourned
until 2 o'clock this afternoon.
At the afternoon session the following
state officers were elected
for the next two years: Grand protector,
J. H. Palmer; reelected; Dallas; grand vice-protector, Mrs. E. H. Coffey; grand secretary, W. P. Cole; reelected; Dallas; grand
treasurer, Mrs. Mrs. E. H. Coffey; Houghton;

Order—S. H. Ashton, W. A. Callahan;

Appeals—E. M. Story, E. G. Gates;

J. R. Elbert;

Legislation—C. C. Burke, D. L. Mays;

G. C. McCarroll.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211,
making a total of $316,382.34. The total
disbursements were $12,108.58, leaving
a balance on hand, October 31, 1893, of $34,273.86. The treasurer's report is exactly the same as the secretary's and
both were approved.

The report of the grand secretary
showed that the cash on hand November
1, 1892, was $296,134 and that the re-
ceipts since that time were $1,210,211, making a total of $316,